

South American Summer Birds

SUMMER BIRDS OF SOUTH AMERICA

Resident Species:

- 1.
2. Andean Condor - One of the largest flying birds in the world.
3. Scarlet Macaw - Vibrant red, yellow, and blue plumage.
4. Hyacinth Macaw - The largest parrot species.
5. Hoatzin - A unique, prehistoric-looking bird from the Amazon.

Migratory and Common Summer Visitors:

- 6.
7. Rufous-bellied Thrush - A common songbird in urban and rural areas.
8. Great Egret - Elegant white heron seen in wetlands.
9. Saffron Finch - Bright yellow bird common in open areas.
10. Various North American Warblers - Small songbirds that migrate south for the winter.